	The group of carers offer each other mutual support, by listening, sharing experiences and general helpful support. Our volunteers have all had carer experience and offer support. Christies Care managers attend the sessions which is useful for the current users of the Respite service and a useful introduction for others.
Highlights:	There is a lovely camaraderie within the group of carers. The three cared for are supported away from their carers and enjoy creative activities and comfortable conversation with the volunteers.
Problems or Concerns:	Non
